Dear: Dean, Faculty of Education, Chiang Mai University

Invitation to participate in The 12th World Peace Ethics Contest for Young People 2021:
University and College Level

World Peace Ethics Club, Thailand, have a goal to promote young people both in Thailand and abroad to learn basic moral principles that are universal and accessible to people of any race and religion. Young people can learn the knowledge in their daily lives. This will enable them to have good minds and success in their lives with inner peace and can spread this happiness to families, societies and countries. Finally, it can create love, harmony and true peace.

For the reasons, the project organizer would like to invite your students year 1 to 4 to apply for this project. The participating student will study the book 'Family Day by Day' and join the 'World Peace International Youth Ambassador Camp'. The application form can submit now until 5th January 2021.

We would appreciate your kind assistance and hope to receive your cooperation to help us successfully raise awareness of moral values amongst young people. Most importantly, your participation significantly creates knowledgeable and virtuous youths for Thai society and for the world. Thank you for your kind attention and we would like to take this opportunity to rejoice in your good will.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. Petcharat Lovichakorntikul)
Director of World Peace Ethics Club

The 12th World Peace Ethics Contest (World-PEC) 2021
University and College Level (English and Chinese)
Winning Commemorative Plaques, Certificates and Scholarships

Background

College and university students are our nation's future. They are key influences in building a better society and country. As we realize the rapid growth in technology developments and more elaborated learning methods, more so than ever, our young people truly need to be well-equipped and well-balanced with the good quality of the mind.

World Peace Ethics Club, Thailand, have a goal to promote young people both in Thailand and abroad to learn basic moral principles that are universal and accessible to people of any race and religion. Students can learn the knowledge in their daily lives. This will enable them to have good minds and success in their lives with inner peace and can spread this happiness to families, societies and countries. Finally, it can create love, harmony and true peace.

For this reason, the committees of World Peace Ethics Club initiated the First Annual World Peace Ethics Contest (World-PEC) for Young People in Thailand in 2008. The participating students learned moral principles through reading the book entitled, 'Family Day by Day' (English book for English language and Chinese book for Chinese language) this can help them to live proper lives based on the firm foundations of moral integrity.

Objectives

2.1 To promote students to learn basic moral principles, which are universal knowledge that people of any race, religion and creed can apply to their daily lives.

2.2 To encourage students to creatively and morally develop themselves and have good manners in daily lives, which brings warmth of heartedness into the family environment.

2.3 To teach the students to morally and worldly become well-rounded citizens who are ready to lead a well developed and peaceful country, and look towards world peace.
