STC Fellowship for Undergraduate Programs

Introduction

USTC Fellowship for undergraduate programs has two levels:

- Level A, funded by USTC, includes tuition waiver, Comprehensive Medical Insurance, monthly stipend of 2,500 RMB and accommodation subsidy;
- Level B, funded by USTC, includes tuition waiver.

To apply for the fellowship, applicants need to create an account in the USTC Application System and select the fellowship that they want to apply for. Applicants can either apply for one level or two levels at the same time. USTC will decide which level of the fellowship may be given based on the comprehensive evaluation of the applicant. Each applicant can only be supported by one scholarship.

Eligibility

1. Non-Chinese citizens with a valid passport, in good physical and mental health
 2. Having passed new HSK Level 5 or above; applicants whose native language is Chinese, or can provide proof of studying at a high school where the teaching language is Chinese, can apply for HSK test exemption.
 3. Emigrants from mainland China, Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan applying as international students must obtain their current foreign citizenship before April 30th, 2021. In addition, the applicant must live abroad for at least 2 years during the period between April 30th, 2021 and April 30th, 2025 (more than 9 months of residence abroad per year may be considered as one year)
 4. The conditions set by the Document No. 12 (2020) of Ministry of Education of the PRC (Annex I) should be met.
 5. Applicants must hold a high school diploma (equivalent to high school diploma in China) by July of 2025.
 6. Applicants must be under the age of 30 by September 1st, 2025.
- ✘ For the graduates to obtain their degrees in 2025, they should submit a Pre-graduation Certificate to ensure that they will complete their study and obtain the degree by July of 2025.
- ✘ Applicants who have been granted for other Chinese scholarship or funds (2025-2026) cannot apply for this scholarship.
